

Cheselyn Amato presents her work during JAS Open Studios Session by ZOOM on 10.13.2020: In this session of Jewish Art Salon's OPEN STUDIOS, Creativity in an Uncertain Time, curated by Judith Joseph and Dorit Jordan Dotan, the questions of "What was?", "What is?", "What will be?" are explored by three contemporary artists: Andi Arnovitz, Quimetta Perle and Cheselyn Amato. Cheselyn's segment is a presentation of her visual and spoken-text performance work in the context of the concurrent significant conditions of Covid19, systemic oppression and injustice, and global eco-environmental imbalance. "Creativity in an Uncertain Time" aired live on Zoom on Tuesday, October 13, 2020.

JEWISH ART SALON OPEN STUDIOS
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 13, ET 12PM

Creativity in an Uncertain Time
Cheselyn Amato, Quimetta Perle, Andi Arnovitz

New York 12pm (EST) Chicago 11am (CT) Los Angeles 9am (PST) Jerusalem 7 (PM)

The sessions are curated by Judith Joseph and Dorit Jordan Dotan
Program Advisor: Yona Verwer. Team member: Chana Wiesenthal Elias

Presented by The Jewish Art Salon | www.jewishartsalon.org

<https://youtu.be/x1eoZQab74Y>

(Specific start point: 40min:50sec)