Thriving in Place

September 1 – 30, 2020

An Exhibit Showcasing the Art of Resilience
co-curated by Gene Dominique and Becky Jaffe

As we contend with the twin pandemics of coronavirus and virulent racism, the Arts offer an antidote for our personal and collective resilience. We invite you to schedule a safely-distanced visit to the Abrams Claghorn Gallery to view this uplifting multimedia exhibit by 40 Bay Area artists featuring a healthy dose of incurable creativity for your visual revival.

10% of Sales from this event will go to The Equal Justice Initiative

The Equal Justice Initiative is committed to ending mass incarceration and excessive punishment in the United States, to challenging racial and economic injustice, and to protecting basic human rights for the most vulnerable people in American society. For more info visit <https://eji.org/about/>

This event will be open to the public: Tuesdays – Saturdays 10am – 3pm AND by appointment.

Properly fitting masks must be worn at all times while visiting the gallery.

Hand sanitizer will be available at the gallery entrance.
